Some ‘alphabet soup’ to get us through the day. BIBLE, FROG, TGIF, WWJD. Putting my relationship with God first today -and everyday, I can trust that God’s got this and fully rely on God to help me to do what Jesus would do in the circumstances of my life – because I am a believer with basic instructions on loving this earth.

Family Faith Formation. Please be patient with us as we step forward in faith with you and revision how Cathedral disciples introduce others to Christ and pass on our Catholic faith to seekers of all ages. A survey was sent last Monday to families that were a part of last year’s faith formation programs. Please contact Marge for a survey or for more information about faith formation at the Cathedral.

Coming Soon. Our adult formation facilitators have been looking over resources and are gearing up to renew online and gathered formation sessions. In addition to Digging Deeper two series are being considered; Jesus, The Way, the Truth and the Life and Pillars (a study of the Catholic Catechism). We hope that you will consider joining us for any of these upcoming offerings.

Parenting Pointer from www.susanvogt.net The feast of Mary's Assumption into heaven on Aug. 15 reminds us of God's care for our human body. Whether you interpret this feast as truth, legend, or symbolic, the point is that our body is holy and loved. Bless your child with your hands and words today. Be a reminder of God's of God's love.

Marriage Moments from www.susanvogt.net "For my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples." (Isaiah 56: 7) It is good to pray and be a person of faith, BUT married couples don't always share the same faith or pray the same way. Even if you are of the same faith, ask each other how they describe God, what they really believe, or how they pray. You can be different but still united.

Especially for parents of young children <https://bustedhalo.com/life-culture/want-to-raise-little-saints-tell-the-saints-stories> This link will take you to an article about some great books and a side story about “Pancake Sunday.”

Our Sunday Visitor Question & Activity of the Week. Theme: Trust in God and never be afraid to ask God for anything. Reread today’s Gospel. Matthew 15:21-28.

What in this story strikes you as powerful? What touches your heart? What image do you take away from this reading? Look into Your Life. What is your favorite way to talk with Jesus? What words do you use? Do you trust that God hears your prayers? Do you believe that your prayer makes a difference? When you pray, how do you know that Jesus will really respond? Choose one of the following activities to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- In today’s Gospel the Canaanite woman demanded that Jesus heal her daughter. Gather for family prayer and invite each person to offer a prayer of petition, silently or aloud, for any member of the family.
- The Canaanite woman confronted the evils of discrimination in today’s Gospel. As a family, explore the topic of discrimination. Watch the evening news together. After the news, discuss the stories of discrimination in the newscast and what can be done about these situations. Talk about how faith plays a role in dealing with the evils of discrimination.
- Maybe your family is a victim of discrimination. Talk to your children about their feelings and how they can cope with this discrimination. Remind your children that God loves them.

Attention youth heading off to college. You don’t need to ‘go it alone.’ Newman, FOCUS and Theology on Tap are a couple of outreach programs located on college and university campuses.
