Disciple Making right here. The Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, along with every other Catholic parish, exists to make disciples. After our purpose of offering praise and thanks to God through Jesus, this is our focus. You – Cathedral parishioners, exist to make disciples. This is accomplished by being disciples who make God's plan and Jesus' saving love visible in every corner of our society and ultimately across the globe.

This reality is seen most clearly in the formation process known as the catechumenate. This process, experienced by older children and adults preparing for baptism, is more than learning material from a textbook or participating in a certain number of meetings. It is the unfolding and maturing of a living relationship with Christ and His Church- accomplished in stages within a community of believers! Each definite stage is marked with a meaningful rite celebrated with members of the parish assembled for worship. It is the handing on of faith – from those who have received it, Cathedral parishioners, - to those who have been invited by God to embrace and live this faith as a part of the Catholic Christian community.

Last Saturday, Chad celebrated the first of these Rites during the 4pm Mass with his Cathedral sponsor, Keith at his side. Welcome Chad! He is already volunteering as an usher.
