.OSV Activity of the Week. Every day of life is a gift from God. (Gather with others or pray alone.) Ask each person to thank God for one of their gifts: “Thank you, God, for _____.” Conclude with the following prayer: “May we use our gifts to glorify you by the way we live our lives.” Amen.

Catholic Social Teaching CST 101 This weekend we view poor from God’s perspective – and choose to allow what we see and hear about people’s struggles throughout the world to affect us. As Catholic disciples, we are called to act in two ways; direct care AND work to change attitudes and structures that impoverish people and keep them in poverty. Click the link for a short video from the USCCB & Catholic Relief Services.

Marriage Moments – www.susanvogt.net

Oct. 19. Last week Susan addressed what women want from a relationship. This week... What men want. In addition to physical intimacy, most husbands want respect. (A man likes his wife to have confidence in what he does.) Husbands also want affirmation – to know that his wife thinks he is the greatest. And finally he needs to know that his wife desires him intimately. (Shaunti Feldhahn)

Faith formation Families are invited to join in a Zoom Rosary Sunday, October 25 from 10:45-11:15am.

A Millennial Saint in the making. Carlo Acutis – who died at the age of 15 in 2006, was a teen with an extraordinary aptitude for technology and a profound faith in Jesus’ Real Presence in the Eucharist. Let us ask for his prayers; to reignite our passionate love for Christ, faith in His Presence in the Eucharist, and a sincere desire to unite our self-offering with Jesus’ Sacrifice at Mass each Sunday. Blessed Carlo, pray for us. Pope Francis tweeted on 10/12/20, “The witness of Blessed Carlo Acutis indicated to today’s young people that true happiness is found by putting God in first place and serving Him in our brothers and sisters, especially the least.

Congratulations! With great joy, we celebrate Marlee Kristian’s Baptism, this Sunday at the 8:30am Mass! Let us hold her and her parents, Edna and David in prayer as together we put God in first place and move forward in faith.
