BLESSINGS

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd. - Lk 9:16

Después Jesús tomó en sus manos los cinco panes y los dos pescados, y levantando su mirada al cielo, pronunció sobre ellos una oración de acción de gracias, los partió y los fue dando a los discípulos, para que ellos los distribuyeran entre la gente. - Lc 9, 16

Welcome to the Lord's Table!

On this the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ the following members of our faith family received the Eucharist for the first time: Alexiana, Mia and Michael Almeda, Izaiah Cardenas, Ophelia & Tiahna Chavez, Wyatt Crowell-Even, Kamryn Jacobs, David and Kenny Madrid, Sheniece Sanchez. Giovanni Tabares will celebrate his 1st Communion next Saturday at the 4pm Mass. As parents and catechists we are so proud of you, children, for the obvious ways you have grown in your relationship with Jesus and His Church. As catechetical leaders, we are proud of and grateful for the parents and godparents who daily shepherd our young disciples in ways of our Catholic Christian faith. Prayers of thanksgiving are also offered for each one of you who gather for the Mass each week. Your faithful witness of prayerful praise and thanksgiving each week helps all who enter the Cathedral to give right worship to the One who loves us into holiness and wholeness.

Marriage Moment for June 24: "Give them some food." (Luke 9:13) As spouses we give our bodies to each other in joy and share each other's pain when sickness strikes. Taking care of each other's body is part of being married. Sometimes this means meeting physical needs like food and other times it's emotional comfort. Feed each other today. Parenting Pointer : June 21 is the Summer Solstice which means we have an extra long "day." Use the daylight to do some outdoor family activity together - a hike, a bike ride, a swim. Both by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net.

About the Gospel The story of the loaves and the fishes teaches us about Jesus and how he wants us to live. The little boy gives all he has. Jesus wants us to be generous and trust him with everything. Jesus multiplies every good thing we give him. Jesus' love is infinitely generous. Visit www.usccb.org/bible/readings to read this Sunday's Scripture. In Church Think about how Jesus fed the crowds with the loaves and fishes. Then think about how he feeds the Church with his Body and Blood in Holy Communion. Question of the Week: What do you find hard to give up or give away? Family Prayer Dear Jesus, help us to have generous hearts. Amen. (Pflaum Gospel Weeklies)

Theology on Tap -June 26: 7:00-9:00 p.m. Brues Alehouse 120 Riverwalk Place, Pueblo Theology on Tap is where young adults in their 20s, 30s, and 40s get together to hear presentations on relevant topics. All through the lens of the Church's theology.

A message from Bishop Berg gleaned from his Convocation follow-up to the people of the Diocese of Pueblo. (At the convocation) " We learned that parishes are meant to be discipleship focused, since their true purpose is twofold: 1) To sanctify the faithful of that parish; and 2) To evangelize that particular area. We also learned that this happens by doing three things: 1) Casting a vision; 2) Paths of discipleship; and 3) Mobilizing leaders. Now, taking all of this and moving forward, we here at the Catholic Pastoral Center wish to thank you and celebrate all your wonderful efforts in helping us become The Diocese of The Little Way! We wish to better serve you and assist you in reaching your goals and bringing to life the true potential of your parishes and parishioners." You can listen to the recordings at the following link. <https://tlwequip.org/post-2019-diocese-of-pueblo-convocation-whats-next-for-parish-teams/>

Thank you to all who are championing the vision and mission of the Diocese by your prayers, participating in programs like "The 4 Levels of Happiness, working on building 'Amazing Parishes', taking advantages of resources found at tlwequip.org and financial support of the DMF!
