Did you know that being a Godparent is an official ministry of the Church regulated by Canon law?

This is because the role of mentoring someone in the faith is so important. The Church requires that the Godparent be a fully initiated Catholic who is currently active in his or her parish and participating fully in the Sacramental life of the Church. In other words, the Godparent has been not only been Baptized and Confirmed s/he understands the importance of participation in the Mass weekly, Reconciliation (Confession/Pence) regularly, is following the church's guidance regarding the Sacrament of Marriage and – with God's help and mercy - is striving to love their neighbor as themselves and God above all. Often, the one chosen to be the Godparent of an infant or small child, serves as role model and guide for the parents as well. Many Catholic adults have not had the opportunity to complete their own initiation through reception of Communion and/or Confirmation. If this describes you, call Marge at 544-5175 for information about discipleship formation and sacramental preparation. Today is a good day to say yes to deepening your relationship with Christ and His Church.

What do Catholic, Methodist, congregational Christian, and Mormon communities have in common? A commitment to care for the poor in God's name. We witnessed the truth of this last Sunday when members of the Cathedral met in "Room 13" of the United Methodist Church's formation center to prepare nearly 400 sandwiches made with peanut butter and jelly donated to the Rescue Mission by the Mormon Church to be distributed to the hungry and homeless by members of various Christian Churches in Pueblo. Many see only the problems in our city of Pueblo. Thank You God, for helping us to see what is possible when we all work together and give You the glory! And thanks to each of you who continue to 'say yes' to helping in any and all ways with Cathedral's "2nd Sunday – Peanut Butter Angels Project." You are a blessing to our community!

Marriage Moment: Being hospitable vs being 'present.' Some people are like Martha (doing the cooking) others are like Mary (listening attentively to a guest) (Luke 10:38-42). Both are necessary. In your marriage, which of you are drawn to which role? Try switching one time to broaden your skill set.

Question of the Week. Before answering the question below, (check out Fr. Mike Schmitz's Ascension Press video about Mary and Martha at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BvjHcUPo3c8>). Then ask yourself these two questions. "Where today can I serve Jesus in the people near me? Where today, am I going sit at the feet of Jesus to loved and be loved by him? "
