Marriage Moment by Susan Vogt. Affairs usually start with friendships. You start by sharing your problems with each other. As the friendship deepens you start giving each other mutual support and encouragement - especially about your unmet needs. That may evolve into an attraction, like a powerful magnet. Then, before you know it, you may even find yourself in bed with your "friend." Let your "friend" be your spouse.

Baptism, Jesus' and ours is a theme of the week. Our Sunday Visitor Question & Activity of the Week

Our commitment in Baptism is to be a servant of God, spreading the Good News of Jesus to others. Discuss one action that you could do as a family this week to spread the Good News of Jesus to others. Suggestion: Discuss the Question of the week with family and friends and place holy water in a special dish near the entrance of your house. Encourage family members to bless themselves as you enter or leave the house as a reminder of our identity as God's adopted sons and daughters. Questions of the Week: What are we called by our Baptism to become? Where do we get the power to do this? How does the Spirit act in our lives?

"In His Image: What defines you?" is the theme of the NET Retreat for Middle and High School Youth scheduled for this Friday, January 17 from 10am-8pm at Christ the King, 1708 Horseshoe Drive. We stand with you, we pray for you, O holy child of God – Our parish family promises to pray for and journey with those children who celebrated the Rite of Acceptance into the Order of Catechumens at the 8:30 Mass on this Solemnity of the Lord's Baptism. Welcome!
