What does it mean to be a ‘Hero in the Pew’ and a member of the Diocese of the Little Way? To me it means getting up and asking for God to go before me and show me how to live and love as Jesus in all the little details my life. Practically speaking that means I have to know Jesus and understand his plan for this precious world and my role in it. This takes patience, practice, and a whole lot of coaches, cheer leaders and team players who support Jesus’ vision and quite frankly me. I can’t do this alone! None of us can. Not only do we have God’s help through the Grace of the Sacraments, we have members of the Body of Christ journeying with us; in prayer groups, Bible study, faith formation, and most especially the Mass. We need each other and the gifts each brings to Jesus’ mission. Bishop Berg and the Diocesan staff are committed to supporting and equipping parishioners and staffs so that we can achieve our goals. The foundational formation opportunities the Diocesan staff provides for all Catholics – like the Thomas Aquinas based 4 Levels of Happiness; Ananias Training; Intentional Discipleship, resources on TLWEquip.org, and coaching offered through Amazing Parish are all supported through your DMF dollars. That’s not all. Your DMF dollars also support formation of seminarians and deacons, youth ministry, and the communication of this vision through print media like the new Diocesan magazine, Awaken and more! Investing in DMF is investing in the mission and ministry of Jesus in the Diocese of Pueblo NOW as well as building for the future. Your faithful support is much appreciated. Help Bishop Berg, his team and all the resource people gathered to support us -to help us be better missionary disciples. We aren’t just meeting a financial goal – we are helping advance the Kingdom of God and get folks to heaven. Please pledge to DMF today.
